Journal article, one author

Journal article, more than one author

Work discussed in a secondary source

Give the secondary source in the references list; in the text, name the original work, and give a citation for the secondary source. For example, if Seidenberg and McClelland's work is cited in Coltheart et al. and you did not read the original work, list the Coltheart et al. reference in your reference list. In the text, use the following citation:

In Seidenberg and McClelland's study (as cited in Coltheart, Curtis, Atkins, & Haller, 1993), ...

Magazine article, one author

Book

An article or chapter of a book

A government publication

A book or article with no author or editor named

For parenthetical citations of sources in text with no author named, use a shortened version of the title instead of an author’s name. Use quotation marks and italics as appropriate. For example, parenthetical citations of the two sources above would appear as follows: (Merriam-Webster’s, 2005) and (“New Drug,” 1993).

A translated work and/or a republished work

A review of a book, film, television program, etc.
